For Immediate Release: December 4, 2003

Wilkes' Trichilo, Trinity's Smith, ETBU's Verhalen & Bridgewater's Clark Top the 2003 Football Gazette All-South Region Team;

The team is selected by South Region Sports Information Directors for the 14th straight year

(ABILENE, Tx.)---Don Hansen's Weekly Football Gazette sponsors the nation's only NCAA Division III All-Region Teams and for the 14th consecutive season sports information directors from the South Region have chosen the 2003 Football Gazette All-South Region Teams.

Wilkes (Pa.) University runningback Brett Trichilo (Dunmore, Pa.) and Trinity (Tx.) University defensive lineman Jarrold Smith (Houston, Tx.) were named 2003 South Region Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year. East Texas Baptist University punter Scott Verhalen (Marshall, Tx.) and Bridgewater (Va.) College head coach Mike Clark also were honored as 2003 South Region Special Teams and Coach of the Year. To access the entire South Region team, please go to the internet and log onto www.capitalcrusaders.net/footballgazette. You can also call or FAX at the numbers listed below in this release.

A total of 78 players were chosen for the Football Gazette All-South Region team by sports information directors from the 63 schools that sponsor football in the South Region. The All-South Region first and second team selections will now be on a national ballot used to choose the 2003 Football Gazette All-American Team.

Trichilo, a junior, became just the sixth player in NCAA Division III history to run for over 2,000 yards in a season as he tallied 2,079 yards on the ground for Wilkes. He set Middle Atlantic Conference (MAC) single-season records for rushing yards per game and touchdowns (27) on his way to MAC Offensive Player of the Year honors.

Smith, a senior, was named Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference (SCAC) Defensive Player of the Year. His 11.5 sacks this season paced the SCAC and made him the Tigers all-time sack leader with 25.5 career sacks. He also led Trinity to its second straight playoff appearance and will play in next week's Aztec Bowl in Cancun, Mexico.

Verhalen, a senior, became East Texas Baptist's first-ever four-time All-American Southwest Conference First Team selection this season. A three-time All-American that is second in NCAA Division III punting average, Verhalen averaged 41.8 yards per punt during the regular season.

Clark earned South Region Coach of the Year honors for the second time in three seasons as he has the Eagles at 11-1 this season and in the South Region title game against Lycoming on Saturday. This year marks the fourth straight season Clark has Bridgewater in the NCAA Playoffs, in 2001 the Eagles advanced all the way to the Stagg Bowl before falling to Mount Union en route to Clark earning Football Gazette National Coach of the Year honors.
