Fort Valley State's Wimbush and seven Valdosta State Blazers Headline 2004 Football Gazette All-Southeast Region Team

CLINTON, S.C. — Harlon Hill Award runner-up running back Derrick Wimbush from Fort Valley State University and seven members of the national champion Valdosta State University Blazers highlight a talented 2004 All-Southeast Region Team selected by Don Hansen's Football Gazette.

This marks the third year Football Gazette has selected NCAA Division II All-Region teams. The national publication has selected NCAA Division II All-America teams since 1988.

The first-team and second-team All-Region selections advance to a national ballot from which the 2004 NCAA Division II Football Gazette All-America team will be selected in early January.

Wimbush, a 6-2, 220-pound senior from Mauk, GA, rushed for 1,840 yards, 22 touchdowns, and averaged 7.4 yards per carry while finishing second for the 2004 Harlon Hill Trophy. He earned SIAC Player of the Year honors and ranked third in NCAA Division II in rushing yards per game (167.3), 5th in scoring (12.2), and 8th in all-purpose yards (169.7).

The 2004 national champion Blazers of Valdosta State University placed seven players on the three all-region teams led by senior running back Tyran Robinson who earned first team honors at two positions (running back/all-purpose back). Joining Robinson on the first team was offensive guard Torrey Howard and place kicker Will Rhody while all-purpose back Vincent Brown and defensive end Derrick Hill were named to the second team. Defensive end Tim Thompson and defensive tackle Terel Toomer were selected to the third team.

A total of 86 players earned some form of Football Gazette All-Southeast Region honors. Players from 29 football-playing schools in the Southeast Region earned All-Region accolades.
