He recovered a Montana State fumble in the end zone on Sept. 17 for his first career Mustang touchdown.

Meyer, a senior, from La Mirada, California, completed 269 of 410 passes (.656) for 4,003 yards and 30 TDs with 5 interceptions and rushed for 221 yards on 92 carries (2.4 ypc) including two touchdowns. Doughty had double-digit tackles in 10 of 11 games during the year and ranked in the top-10 in the Great West Football Conference in forced fumbles (3), fumbles recovered (3), passes defended (8) and interceptions (4). He capped his career by ranking third in school history in career tackles (466), fifth in career interceptions (14) and eighth in career fumble recoveries (6). The epitome of a student-athlete, Doughty compiled a perfect 4.0 GPA, was the top vote-getter on the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-American team in 2005.

Nkang, a junior, from Hyattsville, Maryland, led both the Southern Conference and the NCAA-IAA with 13.82 total tackles per contest. He paced the conference and finished third in the country with 6.64 solo tackles per game. Nkang concluded the season with 152 total tackles, including 73 solo stops and 18.5 tackles for loss. He also added four sacks and 18 tackles for loss. His 25 tackles against Chattanooga ranks him among the top 10 in the conference records for tackles in a game. Nkang is the 2005 Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year, and was the Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Month for both September and October in 2005. He also scored a safety at Wofford on October 8, 2005.

With three touchdowns in the Wildcats' first-round victory against Colgate in the 1-AA playoffs, Ball also broke the Atlantic 10 record for career receiving touchdowns. Ball, a First-Team all-Atlantic performer, totaled 1,551 receiving yards on 87 receptions, averaging 17.8 yards per catch

Bolton, a senior, from Haley, Idaho, a three-year starter, played every offensive line position during his Bobcat career, most recently he was the offensive center. The Rimington Trophy will present an award to the top center in NCAA 1-AA. This year the highest rated center in voting was Jeff Bolton (See below for more info on award). Bolton also was a Walter Camp All-American selection. He earned First Team All-Big Sky honors as a junior and senior. Montana State defeated arch-rival Montana in the regular season-ending game to claim a share of the Big Sky Conference title with Eastern Washington and Montana. In a question and answer session, one of the questions he was asked after the big win over the University of Montana was, "Q: You were so emotional after the Grizzly game, what was going through your mind that got to you? JB: I was holding it together until Travis' (Lulay) dad found me and gave me a hug, and he had tears in his eyes. That got to me, how much this place means to me. I'm sure me and Travis were the worst. It's an emotional game."

This marks the 18th year Don Hansen's Football Gazette, a recognized authority on small college football has selected an NCAA 1-AA All-America team. A total of 112 players have earned some form of Football Gazette All-America accolades.

The winningest coach in Southern Conference history, Moore led the Mountaineers to their first-ever national championship with a 12-3 record in 2005. ASU capped off the historic season with a 21-16 triumph over Northern Iowa in the national-title game. Moore has compiled a 140-67 (.676) record in 17 seasons at Appalachian and a 167-115-2 (.592) record in 24 seasons as a head coach, which includes stints at North Texas and Texas Tech.

 The Boomer Esiason Foundation, which established the Dave Rimington Trophy in 2000 to honor the outstanding Division I-A center, expanded that award in 2003 to include the top center on each of the Don Hansen's Football Gazette Division I-AA, II, III and NAIA All-America squads. The Rimington Trophy website is located at <http://www.rimingtontrophy.com> Esiason, a high-octane Maryland quarterback, and Rimington, a nonpareil center for Nebraska, were NFL teammates at Cincinnati in the mid-1980s. In 1993, Esiason created the New York City based foundation that bears his name to raise funds for the treatment and research of cystic fibrosis.
